2. Highlighting the Problem Statement

The United States faces a challenge in balancing gun rights with public safety. While most gun owners are responsible, firearm misuse by criminals, the mentally unstable, and violent offenders creates major risks for communities.

- Mass shootings & firearm-related crimes – Public shootings, gang violence, and domestic firearm misuse remain significant concerns.
- Gaps in background checks & enforcement – Straw purchases, gun show loopholes, and illegal firearm sales allow criminals to access weapons.
- Lack of firearm safety education – Many first-time gun owners do not receive proper training or secure storage guidance.
- Gun suicide crisis – Over 60% of firearm deaths in the U.S. are suicides, showing a need for mental health intervention & responsible ownership policies.
- State-by-state policy inconsistencies – Varying laws create confusion for legal gun owners and enforcement challenges for law enforcement.

Why Past Policies Have Failed:
